Sunnyvale Community Services

Working to Prevent Homelessness and Hunger

A Message from our Executive Director

It's Time to Raise Sunnyvale's Bottom Line!

Sunnyvale Community Services and community leaders have come together to support raising the minimum wage in Sunnyvale. The proposed ordinance will increase the minimum wage for workers in Sunnyvale to $10.15/hour, matching the minimum wage in San Jose, with increases tied to the annual Consumer Price Index. Sunnyvale City Council will vote on the planned ordinance in the coming months. If approved, the ordinance will make Sunnyvale the third Bay Area city, after San Jose and San Francisco, with a local minimum wage.

This is great news for low-income workers and for Sunnyvale's economy!

At $10.15/hour, a full-time worker making minimum wage in Sunnyvale can earn $21,112.00 per year before taxes. This is above the new California State minimum wage of $9.00/hour effective July 1st.

The new minimum wage can't come too soon for low-income workers. Average "fair market" rents in Sunnyvale are now $2,129 a month. Rents in Sunnyvale went up 40% in just three years! Housing Trust Silicon Valley calculated that it takes more than three current minimum wage jobs to afford housing and other basic needs in Santa Clara County.* One worker would have to work 155 hours a week, 52 weeks a year (no vacation, no time off for illness) to afford the current fair market rents in Silicon Valley. That leaves just 13 hours a week to sleep!

With rents this high, food becomes a luxury for low-wage earners. Many minimum wage earners participate in the weekly produce and monthly food programs at Sunnyvale Community Services.

The local increase from $9.00 to $10.15/hour can mean $184 more gross income every month for a full-time job. What can a Sunnyvale family do with that much money? After paying their taxes, the working poor have to spend it—right away—in the local community. Any increase in pay will go towards rent, utilities, food, gas and car repairs, shoes for their children, and maybe even a needed dental exam. Their purchases will generate local sales tax revenues in our community. Most importantly, they will have a chance to live in the community in which they work and keep food on the table for their family.

We hope that our community will support a local ordinance to increase the minimum wage to $10.15/hour and tied to the Consumer Price Index. If you'd like to show your support, we encourage you to contact members of the Sunnyvale City Council and let them know you support increasing the minimum wage here in Sunnyvale!

Once again, Sunnyvale is living up to its name as the "heart" of Silicon Valley! ■

Business is Booming, and That's not Good

Message from the Board President

Over the years, SCS's mission has remained the same—to help prevent homelessness and hunger here in our community. What has changed in my 11-year tenure on the Board is not so much the number of people coming for help (though it has increased over the years) but the depth of the need for those seeking assistance. Rents are skyrocketing, food prices are higher than ever, and public transportation is scarce.

26% of our income is from corporate grants, foundations, and government grants. Those grants are often tied to specific programs and services, including paying for rental deposits and medical bills. These grants frequently do not cover the cost of actually running the agency. Keeping the lights on, providing computers for staff, and maintaining our aging building are not covered. And, while we are extremely proud of our low overhead costs of 8% (very low in the nonprofit sector), there still are operational bills to pay and there is simply no way that we could do that if it weren't for the generosity of our neighbors here in our community.

Today I am asking you to consider becoming (if you are not already) an Adopt-a-Day donor. A $1,000 donation goes a long way toward filling in the cracks not otherwise funded by grants for specific programs like Produce Monday, Monthly Food Distribution, and Backpack Day. In the back of this newsletter you'll see a list of many people who have taken that step and have generously supported the work we do at SCS. (If you cannot afford $1,000, we are grateful for a donation of any amount.) Will you be next on our Honor Roll? ■

—Debbie Lynn Owens

Well-Deserved Honor

We want to congratulate our own Carmen Davis for being chosen as one of Silicon Valley Business Journal's "Women of Influence." Carmen has been recognized for her decades of service here at Sunnyvale Community Services. Hard work, perseverance, intellect, and compassion all helped her get to where she is today as our wonderful Finance Director. ■

Congratulations, Carmen!

AARP Volunteers Provide Free Tax Help

AARP tax aid volunteers have been coming to SCS for 7 years now to help low-income families and seniors complete their tax returns, free of charge. These generous volunteers helped 459 families this year with their federal and state income tax forms. AARP is already recruiting volunteers for next year. They especially need bilingual (English/Spanish) preparers. If you are interested, please contact Carol Reichner at careichner@yahoo.com. Training will be provided. ■

Sunnyvale Organizes 2nd Annual Poverty Simulation

This past February, SCS, in partnership with Step Up Silicon Valley and Leadership Sunnyvale, held a Poverty Simulation where participants experienced what it's like to live on limited income in this expensive community. A "month" was divided into four 15-minute "weeks" as participants role-played the lives of low-income families trying to provide food and shelter, while interacting with community resources including a bank, store, utility company, pawn shop, and more all run by participating low-income residents of Sunnyvale and volunteers from Downtown Streets Team.

Texas Instruments was our sponsor and over 60 people participated, with representatives from Texas Instruments and other local companies including LinkedIn and Synopsis. Thank you to Sunnyvale Presbyterian for hosting this event. ■

It's Back—Dinner at the Dump!

SAVE the DATE!

Saturday
June 21st
4:00 – 8:30 PM

Mark your calendar for Saturday, June 21 and join us at Specialty Solid Waste and Recycling's, "Dinner at the Dump." Generously hosted by Julie and Jerry Nabhan and Rebecca Buldo, this year's event promises to be the best yet, with mouth-watering barbecued steak, chicken and fish expertly grilled to perfection by Sunnyvale Public Safety Officers.

Tickets are $50 for adults and $20 for children 8-12 (children under 8—free). There will be a kids' play area, fabulous raffle and silent auction items, and music by "DJ Nabs." All proceeds benefit deserving non-profit organizations, including SCS.

For tickets, please see the back of the letter insert for information on how to order tickets or email info@svcommunityservices.org. See you at the dump! ■

Different Ways to Give

Car Donation: Wondering how to get rid of your old "junkie" car and give back to the community? It's easy. Contact Donate for Charity at (866) 392-4483 and they will pick up and handle all the paperwork. Be sure to specify SCS when you call. SCS will get the proceeds and you will get your tax deduction!

Leave a Legacy Gift: Remember SCS in your will or estate. Help us plan for the future!

Neighbors in Need

Helping our community one family at a time

● On the Road to a Better Life

A man who is homeless and living in his car needed help repairing his car. He had been homeless for over a year, and used up his savings. He had been looking for work but needed the car to get to job opportunities. SCS contacted a local Sunnyvale auto repair shop to estimate the costs to get the car in working order. Thanks to donations from our community, we were able to get the car repaired. The client was enrolled in our food program and received emergency food, toiletries and referrals to job training programs, shelters, and hot meals nearby. His car, which is still his only "home" is safe and drivable. ■

● Getting Off the Payday Loan Merry-Go-Round

An elderly couple living with their adult son who is disabled was behind in their rent. They had moved into affordable housing, but needed help in paying the rental deposit. The couple had received overpayments from social security through no fault of their own, and the federal government was reducing their monthly checks to recover the overpayments. They couldn't make ends meet for the past few months while their social security was reduced, so they took out a "payday loan" with high interest rates. SCS was able to pay the balance of their rental deposit and one month's rent so they can finally catch up and pay off the payday loan. ■

● New baby, new home!

A new mom came in seeking assistance to pay for a rental deposit. Her family was being forced to leave because their landlord planned to move family members into the rental unit. The client has been out on maternity leave and receiving state disability benefits after having a baby. The couple had found new housing, and they could afford the monthly rent, but they did not have enough money for the rental deposit. Without our help, this working family with a new baby would have been homeless. ■

SCS Wish List

We need donations of the following items for our Kids' "Head to Toe" Summer Programs:

- Peanut butter (no sugar added)
- Cans of tuna
- Meals-in-a-can
- Cereals (low or no sugar added)
- New backpacks
- New school supplies

Please check out our website for the most needed items.

Happy Summer, Hungry Kids

All year long kids look forward to summer. Warm weather, long days, and no homework! But for many children the summer is also a time of uncertainty. Without access to school breakfast and lunch programs, many children are unsure if or when they will eat next. With the help of so many generous donors like you, we are able to fill over 2,500 bags each summer with special, kid-friendly food during June, July and August.

In August, as our young clients begin thinking about back-to-school, we hold one of our favorite events, "Backpack Day," when we distribute over 1,000 brand new backpacks filled with age appropriate school supplies plus a $25 shoe gift card so our kids can be ready for school from "Head to Toe!" This year's Backpack Day is on August 14th.

Please consider making a donation of food, backpacks, or school supplies to help our summer programs be a success. ■

Books, Books, Books!

Our friends at Homestead High recently launched a program called "Project Paperback" through the high school's Future Business Leaders of America Club. High school students held book drives in the community and at their high school in an effort to make a positive impact on illiteracy here in the Bay Area. Through their efforts they were able to collect nearly 6,000 books, all of which were donated to local organizations, including Sunnyvale Community Services. Thank you, Homestead High, for your commitment to helping those less fortunate. ■

This is Sharks Territory!

Our new favorite color is teal, thanks to receiving our first-ever grant from the Sharks Foundation for $25,000. The money will go toward our summer programs for kids, including backpacks, shoe gift cards, and healthy food while school lunch is not available during the summer break. Thanks to the Sharks grant, almost all of our shoes are filled! ■

A Spring Bouquet from the SCS Auxiliary

The SCS Auxiliary's Annual Spring Tea Affaire, "Tea and Flowers" was a smashing success, raising nearly $5,000 to help our neighbors in need.

The Sunnyvale Elks Lodge generously donated their space, giving attendees more room to shop, dine and socialize. The children's choruses from the Sunnyvale Music School sang beautifully,

Yamagami Nursery in Cupertino provided lovely centerpieces, and the wonderful Interact Club from Homestead High set up & served at the tea. To join the mailing list, contact Ruth Perkins at ruthiperkins@yahoo.com. ■

SCS Auxiliary Holiday Boutique / Quilt Raffle

SAVE the DATE!

Saturday
October 18th

Be sure to mark your calendar for the Fall SCS Auxiliary Boutique and Quilt Raffle. The boutique features a variety of wonderful handmade gifts for family and friends of all ages as well as a raffle for a special heirloom, hand-stitched, quilt that began in 1937 and is being completed this year in a blue Dahlia pattern. All of the proceeds support the SCS Community Christmas Center. Check our website in September for more information about the boutique and for how to buy tickets to win the quilt. ■

Down on the Farm

We were very happy to have our first Family Farm Day of the year this past March at Full Circle Farm, Sunnyvale's own 11-acre farm. With the help of a generous grant from Kaiser Permanente, we were able to invite our client families (who came in record numbers) to a fun-filled day on the farm, with cooking demonstrations, planting activities, and walking tours.

On June 14 we will again be down on the organic farm when we will hold our annual "Healthy Eating, Healthy Living Fair" which showcases a wide variety of healthy living tips and resources. We anticipate over 250 low-income clients will attend. El Camino Hospital District and Palo Alto Medical Foundation are helping to sponsor this event. ■

2013 Christmas Center

LinkedIn volunteers helped sort 100s of pounds of food and escorted our families through the Christmas Center. Kudos to you!

Good Samaritan Church volunteers were all smiles as they helped our families with their Christmas shopping.

Thank you to our MOMS Club for donating toys and diapers to fill out our Christmas Center shelves.

A new group from Western Digital Technologies spent a morning sorting through the donated goods.

Google volunteers helped to reorganize our food sorting area just in time for the start of our Christmas Center.

Crosswalk Church volunteers came after hours to help re-stock our Christmas Center shelves for our early shoppers.

Volunteers from Palo Alto Medical Foundation escorted families and wrapped teen gifts for the holidays.

A Joyful Holiday Season

Last December was a busy month for SCS, with a bustling Community Christmas Center here at our office and our Annual Holiday Auction at the Sunnyvale Elks Lodge. Our tireless volunteers escorted over 1,200 families and over 550 seniors through the festively decorated Christmas Center, helping them choose new toys for each child, a household gift for themselves, and nutritious food to last two weeks.

The Holiday Auction was packed with over 300 generous shoppers and raised a record $60,000, all of which was used to help our clients in need. Thank you to everyone for your generous support and for bringing joy to our clients during the holiday season. ■
